

Christine Pacini, Chair

Christine Pacini is a co-founder and partner of SHS Consulting, an independent consulting firm specializing in the housing field. Christine completed a Bachelor of Arts, specialized honours degree in public policy and administration at York University and graduate courses at Carleton University's School of Public Administration. Working in both the public (Ontario Government, City of Toronto) and private sector, Christine has more than 30 years of professional experience in the areas of policy, business strategies and community development. She has had an integral role in the preparation of more than 200 housing-related studies and has acted as project manager in the development of a wide range of affordable, supportive and transitional housing projects, from housing for seniors and persons with physical disabilities to housing for large families and youth. In addition to being directly involved in the revitalization of social housing properties, Christine has been involved in portfolio planning, re-imagining the role of municipal housing companies, and other strategic planning projects.

Christine is Vice-Chair of the Habitat for Humanity Greater Toronto Area Board of Directors.
