

Gifts of Retirement Fund Assets - RRSP's/RRIF's

Remember the Causes and People You Care About Most

Why Give Retirement Fund Assets to Charity

Did you know that if you die with retirement fund assets (RRSPs and RRIFs) in your estate, these assets will be fully taxed as income on your final tax return? This can result in the loss of up to half of your plan's assets.

Making Habitat for Humanity GTA a primary or co-beneficiary of your registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) or registered retirement income fund (RRIF) may enable you to support Habitat GTA and reduce the amount of taxes that your estate would otherwise have to pay.

When you name a charity as primary or co-beneficiary of your RRSP or RRIF, your estate will receive a charitable donation receipt for the value of the gift proceeds received after death. As this is an asset that resides outside of the estate, it is not subject to probate fees and the charitable donation receipt may help offset other taxes owing on the estate.

Benefits to Donating Gifts of Registered Fund Assets:

- You retain full access to your retirement funds for the duration of your lifetime.
- The designation is revocable and can be changed if your financial and/or life circumstances change.
- At death, retirement fund accumulations are subject to full taxation at your top marginal tax rate.

By naming Habitat for Humanity GTA as a beneficiary, gift proceeds directed to Habitat GTA are not subject to probate and estate fees as your RRSP/RRIF exists outside the estate settlement process.

- Funds that otherwise would be lost to taxation are re-directed towards helping hundreds of working, lower-income families build strength, stability, and self-reliance through affordable homeownership.

Two ways to contribute the proceeds of an RRSP or RRIF:

- You can designate Habitat for Humanity GTA as the primary or co-beneficiary of your RRSP or RRIF. Upon your death the proceeds will be paid directly to Habitat GTA.
- You can name your estate as the beneficiary of your RRSP or RRIF and leave instructions in your will to donate all or part of the RRSP or RRIF to Habitat for Humanity GTA. You may specify a percentage of the RRSP or RRIF or a particular dollar amount to donate.

What are my next steps?

- Make an appointment with your financial advisor or lawyer to review your personal and financial situation and goals.
- Inform your financial advisor that you would like to update your Retirement Plan naming Habitat for Humanity GTA as the primary or co-beneficiary of your RRSP or RRIF to determine if a change of beneficiary form needs to be completed, or ask your lawyer to leave instructions in your will.
